General information

About ESOT

The European Society for Organ Transplantation (ESOT) is a scientific society involved in all aspects of transplantation across Europe. It is the umbrella organisation under which European transplant activities are organised, and it cooperates with many transplant organisations to structure and streamline these activities in Europe and across the world.

ESOT represents an exceptional opportunity for the transplantation community to share and debate opinions and to develop a European identity in the scientific, therapeutic, and ethical domains. Several Organ Expert Sections within ESOT represent expert knowledge on the respective organs and areas of expertise. At the heart of ESOT is a focus on education and training.

About TLJ 3.0

Event's description

Transplantation Learning Journey (TLJ) is a leading international transplantation event, providing the transplant community with a unique opportunity to discuss and build on the most novel and burning topics in the field.

Building on the past two editions of the event, TLJ 3.0 will bring the project to the next level by providing the scientific and transplant community with methodologically solid, consensus-based guidance documents on clinical practice to improve the care of people with transplants.

ESOT will bring together experts who will discuss four pre-agreed topics and carry out evidence-based reviews. The evidence will be weighed, and preliminary statements will then be developed on these four topics. The culmination of the process will take place in Prague (13-15 November 2022) where the topics will be debated with the aim of reaching a robust consensus for the transplant community. In parallel education sessions will be delivered to conference delegates.

Event's target audience

The audience for TLJ 3.0 includes all fields involved in healthcare and research with an affiliation to transplantation. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Transplant surgeons
- Physicians from all fields with an involvement in transplantation
- Coordinators and nurses
- Researchers in emerging fields (stem cells, artificial organs, tissue and organ regeneration)
- General surgeons and clinicals with an interest in transplantation
- Transplant scientists
- Nutrition and rehabilitation specialists and coordinators
- Transplant pharmacists
- Patients and patients' advocates

Additional items

Programme & Sessions

Webcast recording session

EUR 6,000

As an addition to the sponsoring of the session, we are offering companies the possibility of recording their session, providing them afterwards with the mp4 file for the recording, so the session can be disseminated via several channels.

45' Post session meet & greet

EUR 10,000

Foster a deeper relationship with your audience and organize a post-session 'meet and greet', giving you the chance to continue the conversation, engage in a longer Q&A, and connect in a relaxed setting. These will be held as an informal reception in a private area of the Conference center. Price includes standard food and beverage depending on the time of the meet & greet.

Sponsored Q&A sessions

EUR 7,000

ESOT offers its industry partners the opportunity to sponsor a live Q&A session to give attendees the chance to interact with them — and each other — and find out more about the topic.

Q&A's are an important part of live events and can easily be incorporated virtually. Alternatively, you can have attendees submit questions throughout the session for presenters to answer at the end, which gives your company direct interaction to session KOLs.

Post-event webinars series

EUR 15,000

Post-event, ESOT will host various open and live sessions with key experts and the Scientific Programme Committee to review key moments of the TLJ 3.0. This is an excellent opportunity to be associated with on-going ESOT educational activity.

Communication & Networking

Dissemination & communication

EUR 10,000 per sponsor per track

Slide decks for inclusion will be largely developed pre-conference and based on the sessions taking place at the conference. These will be available for download and will also be accompanied by new ESOT recommendations and statements that will derive from the meeting.

All slide decks will be consistently formatted in the ESOT style, including those provided by the scientific committee, to ensure a professional and consistent finish. They will be reviewed and endorsed by ESOT prior to publication.

Post-event, a final summary report will detail the most influential and scientific achievements from the conference and be delivered as a single slide deck based on the 6 domains of key interest. These would include written digests, photographs, quotes, core slides and key data, with supplementary video interviews capturing the opinions of leading KOLs and delegates.

The purpose of the content is to cover relevant new data for internal training (pharma and academia), external medical education, later conference associated symposia, scientific exchange, and advisory boards.

Grants & Awards

Travel Grants

EUR 3,000/grantee

While all stakeholders within transplantation play a vital role in the conference, many do not have the means to participate. Since their voices are essential in furthering the developments of improving patients' outcomes, we would like to bring together as many as possible from wide-ranging backgrounds. Receivers of a sponsored grant are selected by the Scientific Committee.

ESOT prides itself on its capacity to allocate funds to support the participation of successful and top-quality abstract presenters and speakers from low- and middle-income countries. Funds are used to provide grantees* with a return economy flight, full delegate registration, visa expenses and three nights' accommodation.

Your support will be recognised online and depending on the number of grantees supported, additional benefits will be provided.

Benefits include:

- Company logo and description in conference App
- Acknowledgement in the sponsors' list in the final programme
- Acknowledgement on sponsors' board on-site
- Acknowledgement on awards ceremony.
